

hark_hark_what_news_the_angels_bring

Walton waits' version (1919)

after Joseph Stephenson (fl. 1760-75)

Hark! Hark! what news the an - gels bring: Glad Hail migh - ty Prince, e - ter - nal King!
Be - hold! he comes, and leaves the skies: Let E - cho shall waft the strains a - round Till ti - dings of, glad ti - dings of a new born King, King, heaven and earth, let heaven and earth re - joice and earth re - joice and sing!

4

A - wake, ye slum - bering, wake, ye slum - bering, mor - tals, rise!
lis - tening an - gels, lis - tening an - gels hear the sound,
Glad ti - dings of a new born King, a new born King,
Let heaven and earth, let heaven and earth re - joice and sing!
A - wake, ye slum - bering, wake, ye slum - bering, mor - tals, rise!
Till lis - tening an - gels, lis - tening an - gels hear the sound,

Born of a maid, a virgin pure, Born Break with - out sin, Born
 An - gels and men with one ac - cord Break forth in songs, Break
 A - wake to joy, and hail the morn The Sa - viour of, The
 And all the heaven - ly host a - bove Shall join to sing, Shall with - out sin, from guilt, from guilt se - cure. Lord!

 forth in songs: 'O praise, O praise the Lord!
 Sa - viour of this world, O praise the Lord!
 join to sing re - deem, re - deem - ing love.